

Contents

Why This White Paper ?	6
<hr/>
The Importance of Recognition in the Workplace	9
Experts Talk About It	10
The 4 Types of Recognition	11
A Universal Concept	12
Copying and Pasting Doesn't Work	13
Recognition Triggers Performance	14
<hr/>
Consolidated Results of 5 Years of Practice	17
Methodology	18
Recognition is Focused Primarily on Results and Technical Expertise	19
Low Level of Satisfaction with the Recognition of Efforts	20
Multiple Hindrances and Obstacles	21
No Improvement Without Bringing About Structuring Changes in Business Practices	24
<hr/>
Improvements Needed in the Business of Tomorrow	27
Encouraging Consideration and Ethical Behaviors	29
Promoting the Integrative Recognition of Team Members	31
Investing in Peer Recognition Through the Transfer of Critical Skills and Knowledge	33
Expanding "Functional Mobility" Opportunities to All Team Members	34
Recognizing the Efforts Resulting in Collective Mobilization	36
Rethinking Variable Remuneration Criteria by Combining Individual Recognition and Team Recognition Based on Extra-Financial Criteria	38
<hr/>
Focus on 5 Experience Feedbacks	41
Dijon University Hospital Center	42
ColiPoste	46
Embraer Aviation Europe	50
CESI	53
Le Toit Angevin	55
<hr/>
Conclusion : Toward Recognition 3.0	57
<hr/>
VPHR Overview	61